Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

Our Gospel reading today ends with the following words: “You are witnesses of these things”! What things, you might ask? The Easter proclamation! That is, that Jesus suffered and died for our sins and has won salvation for all the world; He is risen from the dead, has ascended to the Father at whose right hand he sits and intercedes for us; and He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and usher in the ultimate fulfillment of God’s kingdom.

I think for most of us the Easter message can seem rather distant. We have heard and do believe that Jesus Christ died and rose from the dead, but what does this actually mean for you and me, here and now? Even at the time of Jesus’ resurrection from the dead, the disciples had a difficult time comprehending this great Easter miracle. Not only were they dumbfounded, they also doubted at times. Jesus had to reassure them as in today’s Gospel when he said to his disciples: “Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have”.

For us, to touch Christ is to receive in faith the gift of everlasting life which he brings. So, to the question posed earlier on namely, what is the implication of the resurrection for you and I, a good response can be found in the first Preface that we use in the Eucharistic Prayer at the Mass for the dead. Therein it states that for the “faithful, life is changed and not ended”.

Death is not the end; rather, it is a new beginning with no limits for those who believe. The resurrected reality is beyond what we are familiar with. That is why the disciples of Christ “were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost”; they were “incredulous for joy and [completely] amazed”!

As a priest, I have presided at many funeral masses and the reality of death is one that I am very familiar with. Easter dares us to look beyond death and to see what lies beyond in Christ Jesus – the gift of the heavenly body and perpetual life in God’s kingdom. Here is how St. Paul summarizes this truth: “There are both heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the brightness of the heavenly is one kind and that of the earthly another. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown corruptible; it is raised incorruptible. It is sown dishonorable; it is raised glorious. It is sown weak; it is raised powerful. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual one” (1 Cor. 15:40, 42-44).

We are one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your Servant-Leader in Christ,

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridos amados en Cristo:

Nuestra lectura del Evangelio de hoy termina con las siguientes palabras: “¡Ustedes son testigos de estas cosas”! ¿Qué cosas, podrías preguntar? ¡El anuncio pascual! Es decir, que Jesús sufrió y murió por nuestros pecados y ganó la salvación para todo el mundo; Ha resucitado de entre los muertos, ha ascendido al Padre a cuya diestra se sienta e intercede por nosotros; y vendrá de nuevo en gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos, y marcar el comienzo del cumplimiento definitivo del reino de Dios.

Creo que para la mayoría de nosotros el mensaje de Pascua puede parecer bastante distante. Hemos escuchado y creemos que Jesucristo murió y resucitó de entre los muertos, pero ¿qué significa esto realmente para usted y para mí, aquí y ahora? Incluso en el momento de la resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos, los discípulos tuvieron dificultades para comprender este gran milagro pascual. No solo se quedaron estupefactos, sino que también dudaron a veces. Jesús tuvo que tranquilizarlos como en el Evangelio de hoy cuando dijo a sus discípulos: “Miren mis manos y mis pies, que soy yo mismo. Tócame y mira, porque un fantasma no tiene carne y huesos como ves que yo tengo”.

Para nosotros, tocar a Cristo es recibir con fe el don de la vida eterna que él trae. Entonces, a la pregunta planteada anteriormente, a saber, cuál es la implicación de la resurrección para usted y para mí, se puede encontrar una buena respuesta en el primer Prefacio que usamos en la Plegaria Eucarística en la Misa por los muertos. Allí dice que para los fieles “la vida se cambia y no se acaba”.

La muerte no es el fin; más bien, es un nuevo comienzo sin límites para los que creen. La realidad resucitada está más allá de lo que estamos familiarizados. Por eso los discípulos de Cristo “se asustaron y aterrorizaron y pensaron que estaban viendo un fantasma”; ¡estaban “incrédulos de alegría y [completamente] asombrados”!

Como sacerdote, he presidido muchas misas funerarias y estoy muy familiarizado con la realidad de la muerte. La Pascua nos desafía a mirar más allá de la muerte y ver lo que hay más allá en Cristo Jesús: el don del cuerpo celestial y la vida perpetua en el reino de Dios. Así es como San Pablo resume esta verdad: “Hay tanto cuerpos celestes como cuerpos terrestres, pero el resplandor de los celestiales es de una clase y el de la tierra de otra. Así también es la resurrección de los muertos. Se siembra corruptible; es resucitado incorruptible. Se siembra deshonroso; se levanta glorioso. Se siembra débil; se levanta poderoso. Se siembra cuerpo natural; se levanta un cuerpo espiritual. Si hay un cuerpo natural, también hay uno espiritual” (1 Cor. 15:40, 42-44).

Somos una parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

APRIL CLERGY BIRTHDAYS!

Happy Birthday

To Father Jorge and Deacon Buzz!

God bless you for your faithful service and kindness to the people of Holy Family Parish. May this year be filled with abundant joys for you!

The Third Order or Lay Carmelites will meet on Sunday, April 25th at 2pm in the Holy Family Parish Hall. All the Major Orders of the Church have a Third Order for lay people. The charism of the Carmelites is prayer, contemplation and service. If you would like to draw closer to Christ and His Holy Mother and be inspired spiritually by the great Carmelite saints, please join us. For more information, please call Ellen Perry at 409-740-6842.

The “Sacraments of Initiation” can be seen in our RCIA symbol above. Christ accepting us into the water is for Baptism. The Holy Spirit (in the form of a dove) is seen with the shield of our faith which we receive when we are Confirmed. The wheat and grapes symbolize the bread and wine which will become the true Body and Blood of Christ Himself.

WHEN YOU BECAME A MEMBER OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH, YOU PROMISED (or someone did it for you if you were an infant), TO GO ON A LIFELONG JOURNEY OF GROWING CLOSER TO GOD AND DEEPENING YOUR UNDERSTANDING AND YOUR PRACTICE OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH. LOOKS LIKE WE ALL HAVE A LONG WAY TO GO!! SO LET’S GET BUSY—WE HAVE WORK TO DO!!

WE ARE THEM!!

On Easter Vigil, the night before Easter, several of our RCIA Students were Baptized into the Catholic Faith. Next, they and the other students were Confirmed in our Faith and received their First Eucharist.

Those three sacraments are called the Sacraments of Initiation because they are the way in which adults enter into the Catholic Faith.

Those three sacraments transform, strengthen, and send forth our newly-received Catholics into a time period called “Mystagogy”, which is a lifelong journey of growing closer to God and deepening understanding and practice of the faith.

Mystagogy is a lifelong process: You and I are still living, learning, growing in, and called to share our faith. YES—US!! We, who may have been Catholics all of our lives, are RESPONSIBLE for continuing to study and continually learn more and more about our God, the Trinity, the Catholic Faith, the Bible, and so very much more.
