Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

Today's Gospel reading oozes with great intimacy. Jesus speaks of the loving knowledge that he shares with His Heavenly Father and immediately inserts his flock – that is the faithful – into this eternal communion of love: “just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep”. Through his suffering, death and resurrection, Christ washed away our sins, delivered us from the dominion of darkness, and reintegrated us into the Divine life. In Christ, we are therefore made children of God.

Every loving father wants the very best for his family. A loving father serves, protects, nourishes, and provides for his loved ones. The love of the Heavenly Father is absolute; and so His gift to His children is God's very self. “Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is”.

Beloved, this is what we hope for! Without hope, life will be directionless and bleak. Hope lights the path on life's journey and points the way forward. It keeps our enthusiasm alive and furnishes us with the energy we need to push through in moments of difficulties.

St. Thomas Aquinas, the angelic doctor, reminds us that “the object of hope is a future good, difficult but possible to obtain”. Here he speaks of the Christian hope, which “attains God Himself, on Whose help it leans” (Summa Theologiae, II of II, Q. 17, Art. 1). The Christian hopes for eternal life, God's own life. On our own, this is impossible to attain but as the author of the First Letter of John reminds us today, this gift is already ours in God and will be made fully manifest to us at the appointed time.

This is the gift of Christ, the Good Shepherd. It is also the message of Easter. Christ, our Lord, took our nature, suffered and died for us so that he might share his own life with us. And “this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ” (John 17:3). Christ intimately reveals the Heavenly Father to us (see: John 15:14-17) and the crux of his revelation is this: we are God's beloved children. This is God's free and absolute gift to us in Christ. Let us in faith and with gratitude embrace the Easter proclamation and aided by grace, seek to live as God's beloved children who are endowed with the hope of eternal glory, Amen!

We are one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your Servant-Leader in Christ,

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridos amados en Cristo:

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy rezuma gran intimidad. Jesús habla del conocimiento amoroso que comparte con su Padre celestial e inmediatamente inserta a su rebaño, es decir, los fieles, en esta eterna comunión de amor: “así como el Padre me conoce y yo conozco al Padre y daré mi vida por las ovejas”. A través de su sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección, Cristo lavó nuestros pecados, nos liberó del dominio de las tinieblas y nos reintegra a la vida Divina. En Cristo, por tanto, somos hechos hijos de Dios.

Todo padre amoroso quiere lo mejor para su familia. Un padre amoroso sirve, protege, nutre y provee a sus seres queridos. El amor del Padre Celestial es absoluto; y, por tanto, Su regalo para Sus hijos es el mismo Dios. “Amados, ahora somos hijos de Dios; lo que seremos aún no ha sido revelado. Sabemos que cuando sea revelado seremos como él, porque lo veremos tal como es”.

Amados, ¡esto es lo que esperamos! Sin esperanza, la vida no tendrá rumbo y será sombría. La esperanza ilumina el camino del viaje de la vida y señala el camino a seguir. Mantiene vivo nuestro entusiasmo y nos proporciona la energía que necesitamos para salir adelante en momentos de dificultad.

Santo Tomás de Aquino, el doctor angelical, nos recuerda que “el objeto de la esperanza es un bien futuro, difícil pero posible de obtener”. Aquí habla de la esperanza cristiana, que “alcanza a Dios mismo, en cuya ayuda se apoya” (Summa Theologiae, II de II, Q. 17, Art. 1). El cristiano espera la vida eterna, la propia vida de Dios. Por nuestra cuenta, esto es imposible de lograr, pero como nos recuerda hoy el autor de la Primera Carta de Juan, este don ya es nuestro en Dios y se nos manifestará plenamente en el momento señalado.

Este es el don de Cristo, el Buen Pastor. También es el mensaje de Pascua. Cristo, nuestro Señor, tomó nuestra naturaleza, sufrió y murió por nosotros para poder compartir su propia vida con nosotros. Y “esta es la vida eterna: que te conozcan a ti, el único Dios verdadero, y al que has enviado, Jesucristo” (Juan 17: 3). Cristo nos revela íntimamente al Padre Celestial (ver: Juan 15: 14-17) y el quid de su revelación es este: somos los hijos amados de Dios. Este es el regalo gratuito y absoluto de Dios para nosotros en Cristo. Abracemos con fe y con gratitud la proclamación de la Pascua y, con la ayuda de la gracia, busquemos vivir como hijos amados de Dios, dotados de la esperanza de la gloria eterna. ¡Amén!

Somos una parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡jamén!

Holy Family Catholic School

Creating Future Saints and Scholars!

Holy Family Catholic School is upgrading and renovating our local parish school. We are excited to announce that after 58 years our building is getting a new roof! You read that correctly, our school is currently rocking the original roof from the 1960s. Construction will begin in May and continue through the summer months. We look forward to its completion for the start of the 2021-2022 school year. Visit our Facebook page to see the roof progress and what other improvements we have in store for the new school year.

Is your family looking for a way to give back to the local community? Consider donating an item off of the school's Amazon Wish List https://smile.amazon.com/.../2ZC3LSBWX.../ref=cm_wl_huc_view. Items in all price ranges are available for you to choose from. Every donation big or small helps us get one step closer to our dream school. If you are not an Amazon user but would still like to donate, we ask that you consider donating funds toward our classroom mini blind project. Majority of the mini blinds are no longer fully functioning and need to be replaced. Help our students enjoy the view while maintaining a cool learning environment. Donations can be dropped off or mailed to the school office.

Holy Family Catholic School thanks all of our supporters, especially our parishioners! Without your generosity the legacy of Catholic education on the island would not be possible. Your help is much appreciated and goes a long way in making a difference in the lives of our students!

Spouse of the Mother of God, Pray for Us

Joseph was so much in love with his wife Mary and I believe that our Blessed Mother knew was secure in the patronage of St. Joseph. He was her warrior and knight, he was a gentleman, defender and protector, a great friend, trustworthy, and a good father. Every woman desires such a husband.

The Church and the world at large need St. Joseph. He is a model husband and father. Husbands/Fathers should respect and love your wives and by your love and wise presence you will lead children entrusted to your care to God. Every father looks to his father to see what it means to be a sacrificial man, a loving husband and father. The vocation of all men is to be at the service of all those entrusted to their care. If you have forgotten ask St. Joseph to help you follow his example. Your families will be loved and secure and you will be holy also. Real men love, real men are gentlemen, real men protect, real men serve each other!

St Joseph, Pray for Us.
