Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

One of the perks of living on this beautiful island is having the beach so close to home! I love to take walks along the beach. It serves as time for me to pray, especially the rosary; reflect; and also just unwind by enjoying the grandeur of God as displayed in His works!

Recently, as I made one of my walks, I decided to sit down on one of the marble pavements along the beach and finish my prayers. And just then, I noticed the wildflowers that perched in a little corner. Their beauty struck me but what impressed me more was that many who go to the beach may not even notice these beautiful wildflowers! And in spite of that possibility, God makes them anyway!

How beautiful our world would be if more of us went about doing good, not minding whether our good works are going to be noticed or not! In one of his teachings about doing good, Jesus reminds us of who our primary audience should be – God, and not necessarily man: When you do good, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. ... And your Father who sees in secret will repay you (cf. Matthew 6:3-4).

It is good to do good for the sake of goodness! Without this, life will become too transactional and will lose much of its beauty. So let us be encouraged and steadfast in doing good, always remembering that our Heavenly Father notices and repays goodness in abundance.

It is through the generosity of parish volunteers that we are able to spread good works within our parish. We would like to invite you to consider becoming an ambassador for good works by joining any one of the different ministries and parish groups. We need altar servers, acolytes, lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, ushers/hospitality ministers, dedicated adorers during Eucharistic Exposition and Adoration, friends and supporters of our Holy Family Catholic school, etc. To all who are already helping in these areas and many more, we say “thank you!” and may God bless you abundantly, amen!

We welcome Fr. Richard McNeille and the seminarians who will be staying at St. Patrick’s rectory for the next five weeks. They are here for a propaedeutic program, which will help prepare them for life in the seminary. Let us welcome and pray for them.

We are one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your Servant-Leader in Christ,

Fr. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma
shepherdhfp@gmail.com

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridos amados en Cristo:

Una de las ventajas de vivir en esta hermosa isla es tener la playa tan cerca de casa. Me encanta pasear por la playa. Me sirve de tiempo para rezar, especialmente el rosario; reflejar; ¡y también simplemente relájese disfrutando de la grandeza de Dios como se muestra en Sus obras!

Recientemente, mientras realizaba uno de mis paseos, decidí sentarme en una de las aceras de mármol de la playa y terminar mis oraciones. Y en ese momento, noté las flores silvestres que se posaban en un pequeño rincón. Su belleza me impresionó, pero lo que más me impresionó fue que muchos de los que van a la playa ni siquiera notan estas hermosas flores silvestres. Y a pesar de esa posibilidad, ¡Dios los hace de todos modos!

¡Qué hermoso sería nuestro mundo si más de nosotros hiciéramos el bien, sin importarnos si nuestras buenas obras serán notadas o no! En una de sus enseñanzas sobre hacer el bien, Jesús nos recuerda quién debería ser nuestra audiencia principal: Dios, y no necesariamente el hombre: cuando hagas el bien, no dejes que tu mano izquierda sepa lo que está haciendo tu mano derecha. ... Y tu Padre que ve en lo secreto te recompensará (cf. Mateo 6: 3-4).

¡Es bueno hacer el bien por el bien de la bondad! Sin esto, la vida se volverá demasiado transaccional y perderá gran parte de su belleza. De modo que seamos animados y perseverantes en hacer el bien, recordando siempre que nuestro Padre Celestial se da cuenta de la bondad y la paga en abundancia.

Es a través de la generosidad de los voluntarios parroquiales que podemos difundir buenas obras dentro de nuestra parroquia. Nos gustaría invitarlo a considerar convertirse en un embajador de buenas obras uniéndose a cualquiera de los diferentes ministerios y grupos parroquiales. Necesitamos monaguillos, acólitos, lectores, ministros extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión, ujieres / ministros de hospitalidad, adoradores dedicados durante la Exposición Eucarística y Adoración, amigos y seguidores de nuestra escuela católica de la Sagrada Familia, etc. A todos los que ya están ayudando en estas áreas y muchos más, decimos “¡gracias!” y que Dios los bendiga abundantemente, ¡amén!

Damos la bienvenida al P. Richard McNeille y los seminaristas que se quedarán en la rectoría de San Patricio durante las próximas cinco semanas. Están aquí para un programa propedéutico, que los ayudará a prepararse para la vida en el seminario. Démosle la bienvenida y recemos por ellos.

Somos una parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu Siervo-Líder en Cristo,

P. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: JUNE 20TH REFLECTION:

That we not only know about Jesus but that we take time to start a personal relationship with Him.

"The he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" – Mark 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.
