Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

We will be offering a prayer of blessing for all our students, teachers and educators at all Masses this weekend, as they return back to school. The ongoing pandemic is causing untold hardships and challenges to our school systems, and every form of support we can offer to our students and teachers will be greatly appreciated. The prayers of the Church are powerful especially with regards to the salvation of all. That is why the Sacrifice of the Mass, the highest form of prayer, is always offered for all people, both living and dead.

In our Gospel reading today, Christ graciously confers a special grace to the fellowship of believers when, speaking to St. Peter and to the whole Church by extension, he said: "and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven". This special grace is God's gift for the salvation of the world.

Consequently, the Church is rightly regarded as "the universal sacrament of salvation" (Vatican II: Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium, # 48; emphasis added). That is to say, Christ continues his work of salvation through the Church, which is His body. "Therefore the promised restoration which we are awaiting has already begun in Christ, is carried forward in the mission of the Holy Spirit and through Him continues in the Church" (ibid).

Brothers and sisters, when the Church unites in prayer, Christ, who is our Head is present for it is through Him that our prayers are offered to the Father (see: 2 Corinthians 1:20). Let us be steadfast, therefore, in the work of salvation by committing to our communal prayers. The current pandemic may limit our ability to gather in fellowship at Mass for a little while, but we can still unite in prayers in our homes with our families and loved ones.

Saint John Mary Vianney, the Curé d'Ars, said that "the glorious duty of man [is]: to pray and to love". As we diligently work to improve safety for all during this pandemic, let us not forget to pray fervently to God, asking for His blessings and healing graces.

We are one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your Servant-Leader in Christ,

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridos Amados en Cristo:

Ofreceremos una oración de bendición para todos nuestros estudiantes, maestros y educadores en todas las misas este fin de semana, cuando regresen a la escuela. La pandemia en curso está causando dificultades y desafíos incalculables a nuestros sistemas escolares, y todas las formas de apoyo que podamos ofrecer a nuestros estudiantes y maestros serán muy apreciadas. Las oraciones de la Iglesia son poderosas especialmente en lo que respecta a la salvación de todos. Por eso el Sacrificio de la Misa, la forma más elevada de oración, se ofrece siempre por todas las personas, tanto vivas como muertas.

En nuestra lectura del Evangelio de hoy, Cristo misericordiosamente confiere una gracia especial a la comunidad de los creyentes cuando, hablando a San Pedro y a toda la Iglesia por extensión, dijo: "y sobre esta roca edificaré mi iglesia y las puertas de el inframundo no prevalecerá contra él. Te daré las llaves del cielo. Todo lo que ates en la tierra quedará atado en el cielo; y todo lo que desates en la tierra quedará desatado en el cielo". Esta gracia especial es el regalo de Dios para la salvación del mundo.

En consecuencia, la Iglesia es considerada correctamente como "el sacramento universal de salvación" (Vaticano II: Constitución Dogmática sobre la Iglesia, Lumen Gentium, # 48; énfasis agregado). Es decir, Cristo continúa su obra de salvación a través de la Iglesia, que es su cuerpo. "Por tanto, la restauración prometida que estamos esperando ya ha comenzado en Cristo, se lleva adelante en la misión del Espíritu Santo y por Él continúa en la Iglesia" (ibid).

Hermanos y hermanas, cuando la Iglesia se une en oración, Cristo, que es nuestra Cabeza, está presente porque es a través de Él que nuestras oraciones se ofrecen al Padre (ver: 2 Corintios 1:20). Seamos firmes, por tanto, en la obra de salvación comprometiéndonos con nuestras oraciones comunitarias. La pandemia actual puede limitar nuestra capacidad de reunirnos en comunión en la misa por un tiempo, pero aún podemos unirnos en oraciones en nuestros hogares con nuestras familias y seres queridos.

San Juan María Vianney, el Cura de Ars, dijo que "el deber glorioso del hombre [es]: rezar y amar". Mientras trabajamos diligentemente para mejorar la seguridad de todos durante esta pandemia, no olvidemos orar fervientemente a Dios, pidiendo sus bendiciones y gracias sanadoras.

Somos una parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡jamén!

Tu Siervo-Líder en Cristo,
P. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time-August 22 Reflection

That we experience the Peace and Joy God wants for us in serving Him and others. "If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15 When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it!

HOLY FAMILY
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

It is Back to School Time!

Holy Family Catholic School is excited to welcome our staff and students back to school this week. Enrollment is booming and we are growing! The school has gained many new families and celebrates the returning families. We look forward to an amazing school year and seeing what accomplishments our Buccaneers have ahead of them.

Are you looking for a way to give back to the community? Consider donating tuition assistance to our school. Any amount, big or small, helps a family in need. With our increase in enrollment, we have even more families who could use tuition assistance. One-time donations, monthly assistance, or annual sponsorships can be arranged with our principal, Ms. Canino. Please consider helping a family give their child the gift of Catholic education.

Feast day: August 23rd St. Rose of Lima

Isabel Flores de Olivia was born in 1586 in Lima, Peru, but she is much more well-known by her nickname, Rose, which she was given because of her immense physical beauty. She is even said to be second only to the Blessed Virgin Mary in her great beauty and is known as the best-looking saint in the Church. But besides her immense physical beauty, Rose's internal beauty is much more stunning. She spent her entire life pursuing God through prayer, fasting and attending Mass and Adoration daily. She served the poor and sought to become a nun...even though her parents wanted her to be married and her beauty attracted many potential husbands.

Rose tried to make herself look less beautiful so that the men would not want to marry her and she even rubbed pepper on her face so it would blister. Finally her parents allowed her to join the Third Order of St. Dominic and became even more dedicated to prayer, penance and fasting. Her health began to suffer and she eventually died when she was 31, but she is still celebrated as a national hero in Peru!

CONFIRMATION

Who YOU are, and who YOU are capable of becoming!

IMPORTANT: This is a letter from a former RCIA Confirmand who, at the beginning of the RCIA year did NOT understand why he should have to be in class the entire year when all he needed was to be Confirmed.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Hello All,

I really enjoyed learning why confirmation was the strengthening of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. I was confused about its purpose thinking it was extremely similar to Baptism. I now understand it's the sacrament that sets you up to succeed in your spiritual life moving forward. It makes sense why the Eucharist is given after Confirmation. There are some HEAVY theological and philosophical concepts behind the Catholic view of the Eucharist. It's extremely important we all comprehend and fully commit to the significance of all the sacraments. A line that stood out to me from the videos this week was, "This sacrament is truly transformative, it changes who we are, and who we are capable of becoming." I can say I've definitely transformed from my first experience with the Holy Spirit about a year ago. At that time, I was deeply moved and wanted to participate in the Eucharist right away! Little did I know, I wasn't ready to participate in that sacrament. After going through RCIA with y'all, I can say I'm glad this program is in place. I've learned so much about the Church and myself. I'm excited to see who I am capable of becoming! See you all Soon!

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we have recourse in our affliction, and having implored the help of thy thrice holy Spouse, we now, with hearts filled with confidence, earnestly beg thee also to take us under thy protection. By that charity wherewith thou wert united to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God, and by that fatherly love with which thou didst cherish the Child Jesus, we beseech thee and we humbly pray that thou wilt look down with gracious eye upon that inheritance which Jesus Christ purchased by His blood, and wilt succor us in our need by thy power and strength.

Defend, O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen off-spring of Jesus Christ. Keep from us, O most loving Father, all blight of error and corruption. Aid us from on high, most valiant defender, in this conflict with the powers of darkness. And even as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the peril of His life, so now defend God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity. Shield us ever under thy patronage, that, following thine example and strengthened by thy help, we may live a holy life, die a happy death, and attain to everlasting bliss in Heaven. Amen.
