CAMPAIGN PRAYER

O God,

all your blessings. We beg you to look graciously upon our efforts to continue the work of building a united and faith-filled
one Holy Family Parish through our capital campaign -

our campaign goals.*

*Mary, our Mother, you show us by your example that when we make great sacrifices, trusting in God's will for us,
we are made abundantly fruitful.
Pray for us your children so that following
your example, we may prayerfully
contribute to the success of our capital campaign to build a one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit. We ask this through Christ our Lord.*

The Bereavement Committee is in need of volunteers. The Bereavement Committee reaches out to families who have suffered the loss of a loved one through death.

Committee members help with the reception, usually held in the parish auditorium, that often follows a funeral Mass or service.

Committee members set up the auditorium for a meal, serve the meal and clean up after the meal. The family provides their own food, and the parish provides paper goods, plastic ware, water, tea and coffee. Committee members are not required to cook. Please contact the parish office if you would like to join this Ministry.

TASKS OF CATECHESIS

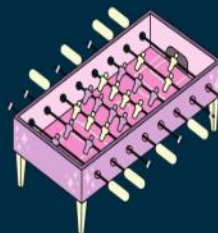

Catechesis prepares the Christian to live in community and to participate actively in the life and mission of the Church

Jesus said to his disciples, "Love one another. As I have loved you". This command provides the basis for the disciple's life in community. Catechesis encourages an apprenticeship to Christian living that is based on Christ teaching. It also encourages the spirit of simplicity, humility, option for the poor, mutual forgiveness, fraternal love that embraces all these attitudes. Catechesis encourages the disciples of Jesus to make their daily conduct a shining and convincing testimony to the Gospel.

The Cross: Our Tree of Life

The Cross is the symbol of our salvation; it is the tree of life on which our savior and redeemer gave up His life for sinful humanity. "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Still, let it be as You would have it, not as I" (Matthew 26:39). What a prayer from God to God. I have never thought of that. God the Son who is One with the Father, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father and through Whom all things were made, surrenders to the Father's will for our salvation by dying on the cross! For us men and women born with original sin and the sins we ourselves have committed, He came down from His throne high in heaven, gave His precious life in order to save us. Why is it so difficult to fully understand that Jesus came because he loves and cares, and everything He went through was for me?

Saint Paul's reflection on Christ's obedience to the Father explains everything. "Though He was in the form of God, He did not deem equality with God something to be grasped at. Rather, He emptied Himself and took the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men. He was known to be of human estate, and it was thus that He humbled Himself, obediently accepting even death, death on a cross" (Philippians 2:6-8).

Yes, He accepted death on a shameful cross. Though shameful and despicable, the cross has been transformed into the universal symbol of salvation because of Christ. To those who crucified Christ, the cross was the most shameful death and they were happy that they did it; but for us His followers, it is the tree of life.

We love the cross, we love the One who was crucified on the cross, we love and cherish the old rugged cross on which hung the savior of the world. For us Christians, it was not merely a shameful death, but the redeeming death through which we have life in abundance.

In the words of Padre Pio: "Anyone who wants to be a true Christian, must mortify his flesh for no other reason than devotion to Jesus, Who, for love of us, mortified His entire body on the cross." Christ has made the cross beautiful. When we unite our sufferings with his, they become redemptive and beautiful.

Jesus meek and humble of heart, make our hearts like unto thine.
Amen.

When I first held Elizabeth, my newly born daughter in my arms, I felt the intensity of God's love through my baby. I understood the miracle that God gave us that morning. I looked at her with awe that my wife and I would be allowed to behold such a creation of God, while caring for and molding her with the help of Our Lord as she grew up in the years ahead.

I know that Joseph was feeling the same way as I did, but with more intensity, because he was given the immense honor of caring for the Son of God.
