Capital Campaign

Our Diocese is 175 years old! It's very remarkable to note that our diocese started in Galveston. Holy Family Parish will augment that celebration when we restore some of the building situated on the property that belonged to the Ursuline Nuns upon their arrival in 1847.

In the first year of our $5.5 million Capital Campaign we have hit our milestone of $3,000,000 in pledge commitments. What a great way to celebrate our Dodransbicentennial Anniversary year (175 years)! Congratulations to the over 420 families who have generously answered the call. You are amazing!

Contributions have ranged from $100.00 to $1,000,000.00 These parishioners have one thing in common.. . to support the parish's need for a Parish Life Center. The pledge donor reminder notices were sent out last week. We have discovered a few software issues. Contact the office if you notice any errors in the reminder notice.

Please join us in this quest by completing the pledge card below and returning it to the office or in next Sunday's collection basket. For more info about any phase of the Campaign, contact the Campaign Chair, Grace Mansfield (409 771 0345) or the Parish Office (409 762 9646).

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

This weekend we are celebrating our fathers! Fathers provide, protect and serve. Many times, their work may seem unappreciated but we all know the negative impact the absence of a father-figure could cause in the life of an individual. So let us give thanks to God our Heavenly Father “from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named” (Ephesians 3:14). Let us pray therefore, for our earthly fathers, so that through their love and service for all mankind, they will continue to mirror the everlasting love of God, our Heavenly Father, amen!

God, as Father, has given us all things in Christ. With Saint Paul, therefore, we can all say: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens” (Ephesians 1:3; emphases added). Christ, in turn, has given us himself completely in the Sacrament of his body and blood, the Holy Eucharist. Today’s feast of Corpus Christi is our way of celebrating Christ’s gift of himself for our salvation.

The Holy Eucharist is the true body and blood, soul and divinity of Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine. In the great Eucharistic dialogue in the Gospel of John (- see John chapter 6), Christ promised to give us his body and blood, insisting that “unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you (v. 54). Regarding this, St. Thomas Aquinas wrote: “it was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this Sacrament at the Last Supper. ...he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion.” He continued: “No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift”. May we approach and receive Christ in the Holy Eucharist reverently and worthily, amen!

As we celebrate our earthly fathers this weekend, we are equally grateful to our own Father Jorge Cabrera. Fr. Jorge was recently transferred by Cardinal DiNardo to become the next pastor of St. Jerome’s Catholic Church in Clute, Texas. We pray for him as he assumes his new pastoral responsibility. Also, we are glad to welcome Fr. José Alonso, who will be taking Fr. Jorge’s place as parochial vicar; see page 11 for a short bio of Fr. José’s.

We are one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Mensaje del Pastor

Amadísimos en Cristo:

¡Este fin de semana estamos celebrando a nuestros padres! Los padres proveen, protegen y sirven. Muchas veces, su trabajo puede parecer poco apreciado pero todos sabemos el impacto negativo que la ausencia de una figura paterna puede causar en la vida de un individuo. Así que demos gracias a Dios nuestro Padre Celestial “de quien toma nombre toda familia en los cielos y en la tierra” (Efesios 3:14). Oremos, pues, por nuestros padres terrenales, para que a través de su amor y servicio a toda la humanidad, sigan reflejando el amor eterno de Dios, nuestro Padre Celestial, ¡amén!

Dios, como Padre, nos ha dado todas las cosas en Cristo. Con San Pablo, por lo tanto, todos podemos decir: “Bendito sea el Dios y Padre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que nos ha bendecido en Cristo con toda bendición espiritual en los cielos” (Efesios 1:3; cursiva agregada). Cristo, a su vez, se ha entregado por completo a nosotros en el Sacramento de su cuerpo y sangre, la Sagrada Eucaristía. La fiesta del Corpus Christi de hoy es nuestra manera de celebrar el don de Cristo de sí mismo para nuestra salvación.

La Sagrada Eucaristía es el verdadero cuerpo y sangre, alma y divinidad de Cristo, bajo las apariencias de pan y vino. En el gran diálogo eucarístico del Evangelio de Juan (ver Juan capítulo 6), Cristo prometió darnos su cuerpo y su sangre, insistiendo en que “si no coméis la carne del Hijo del hombre y bebéis su sangre, no tenéis vida dentro de ti (v. 54). Al respecto, Santo Tomás de Aquino escribió: “Fue para imprimir más firmemente en el corazón de los fieles la inmensidad de este amor que nuestro Señor instituyó este Sacramento en la Última Cena. ...lo dejó como memorial perpetuo de su pasión.” Continuó: “Ningún otro sacramento tiene mayor poder curativo; por ella se limpian los pecados, se aumentan las virtudes y se enriquece el alma con abundancia de todos los dones espirituales”. ¡Que nos acerquemos y recibamos a Cristo en la Sagrada Eucaristía con reverencia y dignidad, amén!

Mientras celebramos a nuestros padres terrenales este fin de semana, estamos igualmente agradecidos con nuestro propio Padre Jorge Cabrera. Padre Jorge fue transferido recientemente por el Cardenal DiNardo para convertirse en el próximo párroco de la Iglesia Católica St. Jerome en Clute, Texas. Oramos por él mientras asume su nueva responsabilidad pastoral. Además, nos complace dar la bienvenida al P. José Alonso, que llevará al P. el lugar de Jorge como vicario parroquial; consulte la página 11 para ver una breve biografía del p. la de José.

Somos una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,
P. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

PRAYER LIST

Dear Holy Family,

Please join us in praying for the improved health of Charles and Rose Olivier.

BEREAVEMENT Ministry

The Bereavement Committee is in need of volunteers. The Bereavement Committee reaches out to families who have suffered the loss of a loved one through death.

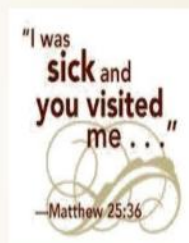

Committee members help with the reception, usually held in the parish auditorium, that often follows a funeral Mass or service.

Committee members set up the auditorium for a meal, serve meals that are prepared in advance, and clean up after the meal. The family provides their own prepared food, and the parish provides paper goods, plastic ware, water, tea and coffee. Committee members are not required to cook. Please contact the parish office if you would like to join this Ministry.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY!

If you are homebound and want a homebound minister to visit you and bring you Holy Communion, please call the Parish Office at (409) 762-6946 or Mary Ramirez at (409) 974-4799.

Si usted está enfermo en casa y desea que uno de los ministros le traiga la Santa Comunión, favor de llamar a la Oficina Parroquial a (409) 762-9646 o a Mary Ramirez (409) 974-4799.

RCIA AND ADULT CONTINUING FAITH FORMATION

WELCOME TO HOLY FAMILY'S RCIA – RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS AND ADULT CONTINUING FAITH FORMATION PAGE.

Want to become a Catholic or learn more about the Faith? Please come and join us learn more about the Catholic Church and/or finish your sacraments.

REGISTRATION FOR THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS IS ONGOING AT HOLY FAMILY PARISH OFFICE.

Mondays to Fridays – 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM.

PLEASE COME AND REGISTER AND BECOME A FULL MEMBER OF THE FAMILY OF GOD.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME

“Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.’ And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you’” (see Luke 22:19-20).

Christ is the living bread that has come down from heaven so that we may eat and have everlasting life. “Whoever eats my flesh will have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. ‘Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me’” (John 6:54-57).

Dear friends, the Eucharist is the true body and blood, soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine. It is important that we make some efforts daily to partake in this heavenly meal which keeps us united with Christ, the source of our life.

The Eucharist, which also means “thanksgiving”, is a special gift to us from our Lord. It nourishes our souls and brings all of us, God’s children together. Even as unworthy as we are, we are called daily to share in it. What a perfect meal!

As we thank our Lord for the privilege to share in his body and blood, we are grateful for the gift of our beloved priests who continue to carry out this great ministry through the power of the Holy Spirit. We pray that God, our merciful Father, will continue to enrich his instruments - our priests with all the graces they need to keep close to him and to continue to celebrate and make Christ known to the ends of the earth. Amen.

Please come register for Adult Confirmation and be fully initiated into the Catholic Faith.

Registration is on at the Parish office here at St. Patrick's Church Mondays to Fridays (8:30AM to 4:30PM).

Fr. José Alonso

My name is Fr. José Alonso. I was born and raised in Guatemala City. I have an older brother and sister, who are twins. So, I am the youngest in my family. When I was a little kid, I wanted to be a doctor like my grandfather was. A few years later, I thought maybe I wanted to be a teacher. Then I thought maybe I can be a psychiatrist. As I grew older, I still felt the desire to help others, but didn't know exactly what that would look like. Eventually, in my teenage years I began returning to the practice of our Catholic faith. I discovered there was a small parish near where I lived, so every Sunday I would walk to mass. As time went on, I began altar serving and helping at the parish. I also discovered the great prayer of the rosary, which I would pray as I would walk to mass.

It was in my teenage years that I realized also there was more to life than just working and making money, and that money is not equal to perfect happiness. Then, one day as I was praying, I asked God the question that changed my life: "Lord, what do YOU want from me? What is YOUR will for my life?" And God did not delay in responding. Now every time I went to mass and saw the priest at the altar, I began experiencing this desire to be a priest. At first, I resisted because I had never thought about it. But the more I discerned God's will, the more peace I experienced.

Eventually, after pulling a prophet Jonah and running the other way for some time, I surrendered to God's will and was accepted to seminary in Guatemala in 2008. I was there for about a year and a half, but due to the harsh conditions and my health declining because of them, I couldn't continue. At this point, I asked God again what He wanted from me, and He answered quickly and clearly. The summer of 2009 I came to visit my uncle in Houston, and he suggested we contact the Office of Vocations. I met with Fr. Dat, the vocation director at the time, and as they say, everything else is history.

I went to Holy Trinity Seminary in Dallas for 4 years and graduated with a bachelor's in philosophy and letters from University of Dallas. After that I went to study theology at St. Mary's Seminary in Houston, TX. I graduated with a master's degree in Divinity, a Master of Arts in Theological Studies and a bachelor's in Sacred Theology. I was ordained a transitional deacon on May 12th, 2018 and served at St. Jerome's parish for a year. I was ordained a priest of Jesus Christ on June 1st, 2019. My first priestly assignment was at St. Helen in Pearland, TX where I have been serving from July 1st, 2019, until June 30th of this year.

I love being a priest! My favorite part of being a priest is to celebrate the Most Holy Mass and to hear confessions. It's always awe-inspiring to see how God works in people's lives! I enjoy listening to classical music and drinking coffee, particularly Guatemalan coffee (the best there is of course). I enjoy a good book, particularly now that I've discovered audiobooks, and Italian food. I am really looking forward to serving each of you in this Holy Family Parish. I am thankful to our pastor Very Revd. Jude Ezuma for welcoming me as vicar here. I ask all of you to pray for me and for all priests, that we may all be holy and faithful and lead God's people to the house of the Father.

The Office and Chapel will be closed on Monday June 20th in observance of The Juneteenth Holiday.

Third Order/Lay Carmelites

The next Lay Carmelite meeting will take place on Sunday, June 26th at 2pm at St. Patrick's, room 2 across from the chapel. Anyone interested in learning about the Carmelite Third Order is welcome to attend. Every main religious order in the church has a Third Order for Lay people, teaching religious, and diocesan clergy. If a person is interested in joining a Third Order, it is advised that they study the charism of the Order. The Carmelite Charism is prayer, contemplation and service.

Joining the Carmelite Third Order requires that one be 18 years old or older, be a practicing Catholic in good standing with the church, have a great love and devotion to the Blessed Mother, and wear the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Becoming a Third Order or Lay Carmelite is not joining a club or social group. It is becoming a member of a religious Order. We attend Holy Mass daily, if possible, and pray the Liturgy of the Hours (morning and evening). Please plan to attend our next meeting if you feel you have a vocation to Carmel. You may call Ellen Perry at 409-740-6842 for more information.
