Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

National Catholic Schools Week begins next weekend, from January 29 to February 3. This is a time to celebrate the great contributions and achievements of Catholic Education in the society. Here on the island, our history dates back to 1847, when the Ursuline Sisters arrived on the shores of Galveston and helped to initiate the flourishing of the faith, especially through the promotion of Catholic Education.

Today, our parochial school – Holy Family Catholic School, and O'Connell College Preparatory are continuing the rich legacy of Catholic Education on the island. We recognize that as parents, you have many choices, but we are confident that the gift of Catholic education is unrivaled! Our goal at Holy Family School is to form your children into saints and scholars!

At a Catholic school, students are taught by skilled, dedicated teachers who have chosen to teach in a faith-based school and to serve as moral role models to students. The curriculum is developed by the Catholic Schools Office and take public school standards and refine them to offer a rigorous, targeted education to every student that enters a Catholic school. With this quality instruction, students in Catholic schools have consistently outscored students from public schools on academic assessments. But what really sets Catholic schools apart, is the Catholic identity that permeates the school. The school day begins and ends with prayer.

Throughout the day, in every class, connections are made between the academic subjects and our Catholic faith and traditions. Teachers lead and encourage conversations with their students about the Holy Trinity and the Catholic Church so that students understand that these are not just topics that we think about during Mass, but that they are the foundations upon which we should build our lives. Students at a Catholic school prepare for the sacraments of the Eucharist and Penance and Reconciliation with their teachers and their classmates at school. They attend Mass weekly as a community. When you give your child a Catholic education, you are giving them the gift of frequenting the Sacraments. The Sacraments are the only Earthly gifts that your child will receive that will last to Eternity. Every child deserves the gift of a Catholic education!

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,
Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Amadísimos en Cristo:

La Semana Nacional de las Escuelas Católicas comienza el próximo fin de semana, del 29 de enero al 3 de febrero. Este es un momento para celebrar los grandes aportes y logros de la Educación Católica en la sociedad. Aquí en la isla, nuestra historia se remonta a 1847, cuando las Hermanas Ursulinas llegaron a las costas de Galveston y ayudaron a iniciar el florecimiento de la fe, especialmente a través de la promoción de la Educación Católica.

Hoy, nuestra escuela parroquial, Holy Family Catholic School y O'Connell College Preparatory continúan con el rico legado de la educación católica en la isla. Reconocemos que, como padres, tienen muchas opciones, ¡pero estamos seguros de que el regalo de la educación católica no tiene rival! ¡Nuestra meta en la Escuela de la Sagrada Familia es formar a sus hijos en santos y eruditos!

En una escuela católica, los estudiantes son educados por maestros capacitados y dedicados que han elegido enseñar en una escuela basada en la fe y servir como modelos morales para los estudiantes. El plan de estudios es desarrollado por la Oficina de Escuelas Católicas y toma los estándares de las escuelas públicas y los refina para ofrecer una educación rigurosa y específica a cada estudiante que ingresa a una escuela católica. Con esta instrucción de calidad, los estudiantes de las escuelas católicas han superado constantemente a los estudiantes de las escuelas públicas en las evaluaciones académicas. Pero lo que realmente distingue a las escuelas católicas es la identidad católica que impregna la escuela. El día escolar comienza y termina con la oración.

A lo largo del día, en cada clase, se hacen conexiones entre las materias académicas y nuestra fe y tradiciones católicas. Los maestros dirigen y fomentan conversaciones con sus alumnos sobre la Santísima Trinidad y la Iglesia Católica para que los alumnos comprendan que estos no son solo temas en los que pensamos durante la Misa, sino que son los cimientos sobre los cuales debemos construir nuestras vidas. Los estudiantes de una escuela católica se preparan para los sacramentos de la Eucaristía y la Penitencia y la Reconciliación con sus maestros y compañeros de clase en la escuela. Asisten a misa semanalmente como comunidad. Cuando le das a tu hijo una educación católica, le estás dando el regalo de frecuentar los Sacramentos. Los Sacramentos son los únicos regalos terrenales que su hijo recibirá que durarán hasta la Eternidad. ¡Cada niño merece el regalo de una educación católica!

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,
Muy Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Si usted está enfermo en casa y desea que uno de los ministros le traiga la Santa Comunión, favor de llamar a la Oficina Parroquial a (409) 762-9646, Mary Ramirez (409) 974-4799, o a Vickie Garcia (409) 762-0855.

A Call for Cantors

You've probably watched - and listened to - the person leading the hymn-singing during Mass. This is the cantor.

You might have wondered: could I do this? Did you have some singing experience in grade school or high school, college? (Clearly, you need to be able to "carry a tune".)

Many people have the mistaken notion that you are required to have some type of "professional training". (This is not the case.)

You also don't necessarily have to stand up at the mic "all alone"; we have the possibility of using "duet" (two) cantors.

If you are interested in serving in this important part of our music ministry, please contact Jonathan Wright, music director, at the parish office, 409 - 762 - 9646.

What an amazing Parish!!! Thanks to your generosity, and with help from our Archdiocesan Council, the 21 Vincentians in our conference were able to help 183 individuals and families (that's almost 460 people). Keeping people in their homes, getting the water turned back on, repairing a car so a man can get to his job and feed his kids, it's what we do every day. In serving the poor, we serve Jesus Christ.
