Capital Campaign

Why Does Holy Family Need a New Parish Life Center?

Here are the main issues we are working to resolve:

- Our 40-plus ministries are trying to plan and perform parish and community outreach from one large room and a handful of small rooms on the St. Patrick's campus, and very few of those are ADA compliant. Routinely, two, even three ministries are meeting at the same time in the same limited area, making it difficult to hear, discuss and conduct business.
- Last year, our parish volunteers logged more than 33,000 hours in gifts of time. Where to put these dedicated volunteers? Where to provide an adequate work space? And, where to park?
- Masses, funeral services, wedding planning and other imperative church activities often intersect with "parish life" ministries, competing for space and time.
- All our current available meeting spaces are in sub-par facilities, and we believe our hard-working ministries and our parish staff deserve nice, appealing and accommodating facilities.

And here's what our $5.5M capital campaign—when completed—will achieve for Holy Family Parish:

- A beautiful restored facility, centrally located at Holy Family Parish Catholic School, featuring 14,000 square feet of space to house ministry and community rooms as well as new parish offices, all on one floor! The space will be fully ADA compliant and parking will be ample and well-lit.
- Holy Family's new Parish Life Center will be convenient and available to all.
- Most importantly, it will present our parish as the growing, thriving and dynamic headquarters for Catholic worship, education and outreach that it is!

Won't you make a contribution or a pledge today? Pledge cards are available at all church entrances. Join US!

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

It's Super Bowl weekend! By the end of the day, a champion will emerge and most of us would become a few pounds heavier as well! As many celebrate joyfully the victory of their triumphant team and athletes, others would wince in pain or simply remain apathetic to the outcome of the game.

The physical attributes and skills of athletes often leave an impression on us. Occasionally, they may even inspire us to become more intentional about our physical wellbeing. Saint Paul invites us to learn an even more important lesson from the athletes. In his First Letter to the Corinthian community, he admonishes us to imitate their discipline in our efforts to secure our salvation, relying on the graces of God of course: "Every athlete exercises discipline in every way. They do it to win a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. Thus I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight as if I were shadowboxing. No, I drive my body and train it, for fear that, after having preached to others, I myself should be disqualified" (1 Corinthians 9:25-27).

Physical exercise is profitable, for sure, but it has its place. As Saint Paul reminds us, the body is the temple of the Holy Spirit (see 1 Corinthians 6:19). So, taking good care of the body with the understanding that we belong to God and are to offer ourselves as a living sacrifice to God, not in accordance with the standards of the world but in line with God's will (cf. Roman 12:1-2) is certainly a good thing. Many approach exercising, motivated but all sorts of vain reasons; this should not be the way of a believer. As disciples, we are called to use our bodies as instruments of righteousness and not of iniquity.

Again, Saint Paul would reminds us that "while physical training is of limited value, devotion is valuable in every respect, since it holds a promise of life both for the present and for the future" (1 Timothy 4:8). Our world today places great emphasis on physical appearance and wellbeing. In addition to working on our physical health, let us not neglect the spiritual wellbeing of our souls.

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,
Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Amadísimos en Cristo:

¡Es el fin de semana del Super Bowl! ¡Al final del día, surgirá un campeón y la mayoría de nosotros también ganaremos unas cuantas libras! Mientras muchos celebran con alegría la victoria de su equipo y atletas triunfantes, otros se estremecen de dolor o simplemente permanecen apáticos ante el resultado del juego.

Los atributos físicos y las habilidades de los atletas a menudo nos dejan una impresión. De vez en cuando, incluso pueden inspirarnos a ser más intencionales con respecto a nuestro bienestar físico. San Pablo nos invita a aprender una lección aún más importante de los atletas. En su Primera Carta a la comunidad de Corinto, nos exhorta a imitar su disciplina en nuestros esfuerzos por asegurar nuestra salvación, confiando por supuesto en las gracias de Dios: "Todo atleta ejerce disciplina en todos los sentidos. Ellos lo hacen para ganar una corona perecedera, pero nosotros una imperecedera. Así no corro sin rumbo fijo; Yo no peleo como si fuera boxeador de sombras. Antes bien, conduzco mi cuerpo y lo entreno, por temor de que, después de haber predicado a otros, yo mismo quede descalificado" (1 Corintios 9:25-27).

El ejercicio físico es rentable, seguro, pero tiene su sitio. Como nos recuerda san Pablo, el cuerpo es templo del Espíritu Santo (cf. 1 Corintios 6,19). Por lo tanto, cuidar bien el cuerpo entendiendo que pertenecemos a Dios y debemos ofrecernos como sacrificio vivo a Dios, no según las normas del mundo, sino según la voluntad de Dios (cf. Romanos 12:1). -2) es ciertamente algo bueno. Muchos se acercan al ejercicio, motivados pero por todo tipo de razones vanas; este no debe ser el camino de un creyente. Como discípulos, estamos llamados a usar nuestros cuerpos como instrumentos de justicia y no de iniquidad.

Nuevamente, San Pablo nos recordaría que "mientras que el entrenamiento físico tiene un valor limitado, la devoción es valiosa en todos los aspectos, ya que encierra una promesa de vida tanto para el presente como para el futuro" (1 Timoteo 4: 8). Nuestro mundo actual pone gran énfasis en la apariencia física y el bienestar. Además de trabajar en nuestra salud física, no descuidemos el bienestar espiritual de nuestras almas.

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,
Muy Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma
