WHEN WILL WE BE ABLE TO SEE THE NEW PARISH LIFE CENTER? VERY SOON!

The contractors reported to Fr. Jude that construction is following a schedule that indicates the New Parish Life Center will be available to us in the first quarter of 2024. The New Parish Life center will facilitate many benefits not only to our Parish and our 40+ ministries, but also to our faith, our security, our convenience, our historical neighborhood, our community, and our future. The site will have new parking and lighting, new landscaping, energy climate control and a clean presentable entrance to welcome our new and current parishioners to our vibrant and active Holy Family Parish.

All donors will be invited to the SNEAK Preview tour and reception. More details about the celebration will be sent out early in 2024. Additionally, there will be a general open house for all parishioners and friends of the parish to help us celebrate this new era.

The sooner we get our new building the sooner we will need the funds. How can you help? We need more donors. Fill out a pledge card available at the Parish Office or at each Church entrance OR, use your specially marked Capital Campaign envelope sent with the offertory envelopes. You can also scan the QR code, call the office, or call me at 409 771 0345

We have completed 2 years of our 4 year campaign. Keep praying for God's guidance as we set this faster pace toward reaching our GOAL of $5.5 million

Blessings,
Grace Mansfield, Chair (409/771-0345)

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

Happy Labor Day weekend! As we seek to uphold and celebrate the inherent good and dignity of human labor through this national holiday, Christ invites us in today's Gospel not to forget the importance of laboring for what is most important – our salvation!

Our primary preoccupation in life as children of God should be the salvation of our souls. On our own, this is impossible! The good news however, is that God's grace is abundant to help us in the work of obtaining the gift of eternal salvation. The saying that "heaven helps those who help themselves" is fitting with regards to this endeavor. Saint Paul captures this truth beautifully when, writing to the Philippian Community, he urged us all to "work out your salvation with fear and trembling. For God is the one who, for his good purpose, works in you both to desire and to work" (2:12b-13).

Back to today's Gospel wherein Christ makes this invitation to all his disciples: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me!" This, at first, hardly seems enticing. Yet, the stakes are very high and for that reason, Christ makes it very clear that unless we are willing to embrace our crosses for his sake, we run the risk of forfeiting eternal life. "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?"

From an early age, we are all taught to value and embrace sacrifice for the purpose of attaining important goals in life. And so we study hard to make good grades; work hard for the wellbeing of our family and loved ones; engage in exercise routines to improve our health; etc. Nothing is more important than our eternal salvation. All the more reason why we should be more eager to embrace sacrifices for the sake of our eternal salvation! Therefore, above all else, we should daily seek to cooperate with God's grace as we work out our salvation, for "the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us" (Romans 8:18).

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

¡Feliz fin de semana del Día del Trabajo! Mientras buscamos defender y celebrar el bien inherente y la dignidad del trabajo humano a través de esta fiesta nacional, Cristo nos invita en el Evangelio de hoy a no olvidar la importancia de trabajar por lo más importante: ¡nuestra salvación!

Nuestra principal preocupación en la vida como hijos de Dios debe ser la salvación de nuestras almas. ¡Por nuestra cuenta, esto es imposible! Sin embargo, la buena noticia es que la gracia de Dios es abundante para ayudarnos en la obra de obtener el don de la salvación eterna. El dicho de que "el cielo ayuda a quienes se ayudan a sí mismos" es apropiado con respecto a este esfuerzo. San Pablo capta maravillosamente esta verdad cuando, escribiendo a la comunidad de Filipos, nos instó a todos a "trabajar en vuestra salvación con temor y temblor. Porque Dios es el que, para su buen propósito, produce en vosotros tanto el deseo como el hacer" (2:12b-13).

Volvamos al Evangelio de hoy en el que Cristo hace esta invitación a todos sus discípulos: "¡Quien quiera venir en pos de mí, niéguese a sí mismo, tome su cruz y sígame!" Esto, al principio, no parece muy atractivo. Sin embargo, hay mucho en juego y por esa razón, Cristo deja muy claro que, a menos que estemos dispuestos a abrazar nuestras cruces por su causa, corremos el riesgo de perder la vida eterna. "Porque el que quiera salvar su vida, la perderá; pero el que pierda su vida por mí, la encontrará. ¿De qué le serviría a uno ganar el mundo entero y perder su vida?"

Desde una edad temprana, a todos se nos enseña a valorar y aceptar el sacrificio con el fin de alcanzar metas importantes en la vida. Y por eso estudiamos mucho para sacar buenas notas; trabajar duro por el bienestar de nuestra familia y seres queridos; realizar rutinas de ejercicio para mejorar nuestra salud; etc. Nada es más importante que nuestra salvación eterna. ¡Con mayor razón deberíamos estar más dispuestos a aceptar sacrificios por el bien de nuestra salvación eterna! Por lo tanto, por encima de todo, debemos buscar diariamente cooperar con la gracia de Dios mientras obramos en nuestra salvación, porque "las aflicciones del tiempo presente son nada comparadas con la gloria que ha de revelarse para nosotros" (Romanos 8:18).

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,

Sports are Back at Holy Family School!

Holy Family Catholic School will once again have an athletics program with the start of our volleyball team! The first practice was this week and the first game will be Friday, September 8, when we play St. Augustine Catholic School here at home. The game will start at 4:30 and admission is free. Make plans now to support our Lady Bucs on the volleyball court!

Video Production Lab is Shaping Up!

More equipment for our new video production lab arrived on campus this week. Mrs. Candace Weber, the school's technology teacher is busily preparing the lab for student use. We will be streaming events with the equipment and creating videos to go on the Holy Family Catholic School's YouTube channel. This lab is one of the many things that sets Holy Family Catholic School apart from other schools. Come take a tour and see what we have to offer!

Father Jude Celebrates First Mass of the School Year

Father Jude celebrated the first Mass of the school year with the students at Holy Family Catholic School on August 18.

Like Chess?

We are still looking for someone to be the second sponsor for our chess club. Our fifth grade teacher, Mr. Joseph Kelleher, will also sponsor the chess team. The chess club will meet one day each week after school. Contact the principal, Jeanna Porter if you would like to take part in this ministry to our students.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAS

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas strive to embrace the principles of faith working through love in the promotion of justice, equality, and the advancement of human rights and human dignity for all. The members of Star of the Sea Court #228 love Christ and his Church and are dedicated to leading others to Christ and his service through the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Our Court meets the first Saturdays of each month (except July and August); dates are also changed for Holidays. Next meeting is September 9th at the KC HALL located at 1912 Winnie in Galveston @ 10:30 AM.
