Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

If we do not acknowledge our sins humbly before God, we will be reluctant to ask for His mercy and healing graces. Our Conversations with the Saints Lenten series this week comes from a reflection by St. Augustine on the value of having a contrite and repentant heart.

*"I acknowledge my transgression, says David. If I admit my fault, then you will pardon it. Let us never assume that if we live good lives we will be without sin; our lives should be praised only when we continue to beg for pardon. But men are hopeless creatures, and the less they concentrate on their own sins, the more interested they become in the sins of others. They seek to criticize, not to correct. Unable to excuse themselves, they are ready to accuse others. This was not the way that David showed us how to pray and make amends to God, when he said: I acknowledge my transgression, and my sin is ever before me. He did not concentrate on others' sins; he turned his thoughts on himself. He did not merely stroke the surface, but he plunged inside and went deep down within himself. He did not spare himself, and therefore was not impudent in asking to be spared.*

Do you want God to be appeased? Learn what you are to do that God may be pleased with you. ... A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit; God does not despise a contrite and humble heart. ...You now have the offering you are to make. No need to examine the herd, no need to outfit ships and travel to the most remote provinces in search of incense. Search within your heart for what is pleasing to God. Your heart must be crushed. Are you afraid that it might perish so? You have the reply: Create a clean heart in me, O God. For a clean heart to be created, the unclean one must be crushed.

We should be displeased with ourselves when we commit sin, for sin is displeasing to God. Sinful though we are, let us at least be like God in this, that we are displeased at what displeases him. In some measure then you will be in harmony with God's will, because you find displeasing in yourself what is abhorrent to your Creator."

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

Si no reconocemos nuestros pecados con humildad ante Dios, seremos reacios a pedir su misericordia y sus gracias curativas. Nuestra serie Conversaciones con los Santos de Cuaresma de esta semana proviene de una reflexión de San Agustín sobre el valor de tener un corazón contrito y arrepentido.

*"Reconozco mi transgresión, dice David. Si admito mi falta, entonces me perdonarás. Nunca asumamos que si vivimos buenas vidas estaremos sin pecado; Nuestras vidas deben ser elogiadas sólo cuando seguimos pidiendo perdón. Pero los hombres son criaturas sin esperanza, y cuanto menos se concentran en sus propios pecados, más se interesan en los pecados de los demás. Buscan criticar, no corregir. Incapaces de excusarse, están dispuestos a acusar a los demás. Esta no fue la forma en que David nos mostró cómo orar y enmendar a Dios, cuando dijo: Reconozco mi transgresión, y mi pecado está siempre delante de mí. No se concentró en los pecados de los demás; Volvió sus pensamientos hacia sí mismo. No se limitó a acariciar la superficie, sino que se sumergió y se hundió en lo más profundo de sí mismo. No se perdonó a sí mismo y, por lo tanto, no fue imprudente al pedir que se le perdonara.*

¿Quieres que Dios sea apaciguado? Aprende lo que debes hacer para que Dios esté complacido contigo. ... Un sacrificio a Dios es un espíritu contrito; Dios no desprecia el corazón contrito y humilde. ...Ahora tienes la ofrenda que debes hacer. No es necesario examinar el rebaño, no es necesario equipar barcos y viajar a las provincias más remotas en busca de incienso. Busca en tu corazón lo que agrada a Dios. Tu corazón debe estar aplastado. ¿Tienes miedo de que pueda perecer así? Tienes la respuesta: Crea en mí un corazón limpio, oh Dios. Para que se cree un corazón limpio, el inmundo debe ser aplastado.

Deberíamos estar disgustados con nosotros mismos cuando cometemos pecado, porque el pecado desagrada a Dios. Por pecadores que seamos, al menos seamos como Dios en esto: que nos desagrada lo que a él le desagrada. Entonces, en cierta medida, estarás en armonía con la voluntad de Dios, porque encuentras desagradable en ti mismo lo que es aborrecible para tu Creador".

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,

Eucharistic Miracle Turin, Italy 1640

In 1640 in Turin, Italy, during the invasion by Count d'Harcourt's army, soldiers killed many civilians in the Church of Santa Maria del Monte. The lives of the Capuchin friars, however, were spared. A French soldier who was a heretic climbed onto the altar and forced open the tabernacle to seize the ciborium and the Hosts it held in order to desecrate Them. A flame blazed out of the ciborium directly towards the sacrilegious Frenchman, burning his uniform and his face. The terrified soldier threw himself to the floor, screaming, and begging God's forgiveness. The church was suddenly filled with dense smoke. Between the terror and the astonishment felt by all, the vandalism ceased. The tabernacle door, which is adorned with agate and lapis lazuli or blue stones, still shows the imprint of the soldier's scorched hand. Honor, love, and adore Our Lord Jesus in the Eucharist. May He fill your heart with never-ending adoration.

Parish Pastoral Council – Consejo Pastoral Parroquial

How is a pastoral council formed?

Generally, a four-step process is employed to form the Parish Pastoral Council. These are prayer, education, discernment, and commitment.

Step 1: Prayer. Each meeting of the council begins and ends with a prayer experience as we focus on our baptismal call to build the kingdom of God. We ask everyone to pray for wisdom and openness for our parishioners and our pastor.

Step 2: Education. All parishioners learn more about the purpose and norms of Parish Councils through materials provided by the pastor. All parishioners interested in the Parish Pastoral Council are invited to an Information Meeting along with those who want to learn more about serving on the council. Anyone can come or recommend someone to go to this meeting.

Step 3: Discernment. A Discernment Meeting is held for those who attended the Information Meeting, are open to serving on the council and are invited by the pastor. The people in attendance consider the gifts and talents of each person and discern who is being called by the Holy Spirit to serve. Anyone wishing to be considered for discernment must attend the Information Meeting first.

Step 4: Commitment. The final step to the process is the commissioning of new council members during the weekend Masses. Then the work of the council begins with an orientation of new members, followed by listening and information gathering about the spiritual needs and aspirations of the parishioners so that the council can undertake the development of recommendations for short-term and long-term plans.

¿Cómo se forma el consejo pastoral?

Generalmente se sigue un proceso de cuatro pasos para formar un consejo pastoral parroquial. Estos son oración, formación, discernimiento y compromiso.

Paso 1, Oración. Cada sesión del consejo inicia y termina con una experiencia de oración enfocada en el llamado bautismal a construir el reino de Dios. Pedimos a todos orar por la sabiduría y apretura de los feligreses y su pastor.

Paso 2, Formación. Todos los feligreses aprenden sobre el propósito y normas de los consejos pastorales, a través de materiales provistos por el pastor. Todos los feligreses interesados son invitados a una junta informativa "Ven a Ver" donde se explica cómo servir a la comunidad en el consejo. Cualquiera puede sugerir o recomendar a alguien que atienda a esa reunión.

Paso 3, Discernimiento. Una junta de discernimiento se lleva a cabo, entre aquellos que atendieron a la junta informativa y fueron invitados por el pastor. Los asistentes han de considerar los dones y talentos de cada persona y discernir quiénes son llamados por el Espíritu Santo a servir. Toda persona que desee ser considerada para el discernimiento debe primero atender a la junta informativa.

Paso 4, Compromiso. El paso final consiste en comisionar a los nuevos miembros del consejo durante alguna de las misas del domingo. Entonces inicia el trabajo del consejo, con juntas de orientación a nuevos miembros, seguido de escucha y recopilación de información sobre necesidades y aspiraciones espirituales, de modo que el consejo pueda enfocarse en desarrollar recomendaciones para planes de corto y largo plazo.
