Message from the Pastor

Mensaje del Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

Welcome to the holy season of Lent! As we have done in previous years, we will be resuming on our Conversations with the Saints series, with the following reflections by St. Peter Chrysologus -

There are three things, my brethren, by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other.

Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. Let no one try to separate them; they cannot be separated. If you have only one of them or not all together, you have nothing. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others you open God's ear to yourself.

When you fast, see the fasting of others. If you want God to know that you are hungry, know that another is hungry. If you hope for mercy, show mercy. If you look for kindness, show kindness. If you want to receive, give. If you ask for yourself what you deny to others, your asking is a mockery....

Let us use fasting to make up for what we have lost by despising others. Let us offer our souls in sacrifice by means of fasting. There is nothing more pleasing that we can offer to God, as the psalmist said in prophecy: A sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; God does not despise a bruised and humbled heart.

To make these acceptable, mercy must be added. Fasting bears no fruit unless it is watered by mercy. Fasting dries up when mercy dries up. Mercy is to fasting as rain is to earth. However much you may cultivate your heart, clear the soil of your nature, root out vices, sow virtues, if you do not release the springs of mercy, your fasting will bear no fruit....

When you fast, if your mercy is thin your harvest will be thin; when you fast, what you pour out in mercy overflows into your barn. Therefore, do not lose by saving, but gather in by scattering. Give to the poor, and you give to yourself. You will not be allowed to keep what you have refused to give to others."

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma shepherdhfp@gmail.com Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

¡Bienvenidos al tiempo santo de la Cuaresma! Como hemos hecho en años anteriores, retomaremos nuestra serie Conversaciones con los Santos, con las siguientes reflexiones de San Pedro Crisólogo:

Hermanos míos, hay tres cosas por las cuales la fe se mantiene firme, la devoción permanece constante y la virtud perdura. Son oración, ayuno y misericordia. La oración llama a la puerta, el ayuno obtiene, la misericordia recibe. Oración, misericordia y ayuno: estos tres son uno y se dan vida el uno al otro.

El ayuno es el alma de la oración, la misericordia es el alma del ayuno. Que nadie intente separarlos; no se pueden separar. Si tienes solo uno de ellos o no todos juntos, no tienes nada. Así que si oras, ayuna; si ayunas, ten misericordia; si quieres que tu petición sea escuchada, escucha la petición de los demás. Si no cierras el oído a los demás, abres el oído de Dios a ti mismo.

Cuando ayunes, observa el ayuno de los demás. Si quieres que Dios sepa que tienes hambre, debes saber que otro tiene hambre. Si esperas misericordia, muestra misericordia. Si buscas bondad, muestra bondad. Si quieres recibir, da. Si pides para ti lo que niegas a los demás, tu petición es una burla....

Utilicemos el ayuno para compensar lo que hemos perdido al despreciar a los demás. Ofrezcamos nuestras almas en sacrificio mediante el ayuno. No hay nada más agradable que podamos ofrecer a Dios, como dijo el salmista en profecía: Un sacrificio a Dios es un espíritu quebrantado; Dios no desprecia un corazón molido y humillado.

Ýara que esto sea aceptable, se debe agregar la misericordia. El ayuno no da fruto si no está regado por la misericordia. El ayuno se seca cuando se seca la misericordia. La misericordia es para el ayuno como la lluvia para la tierra. Por mucho que cultives tu corazón, limpies el suelo de tu naturaleza, desarraigues los vicios, siembres virtudes, si no sueltas los manantiales de la misericordia, tu ayuno no dará fruto....

Cuando ayunes, si tu misericordia es escasa, tu cosecha será escasa; cuando ayunas, lo que derramas en misericordia rebosa en tu granero. Por tanto, no perdáis ahorrando, sino juntad desparramando. Da a los pobres y te darás a ti mismo. No se te permitirá conservar lo que te has negado a dar a otros".

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, jamén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma shepherdhfp@gmail.com

Eucharistic Miracle of Santarém, Portugal PORTUGAL, 1266

The Eucharistic miracle Santarém, together with that of Lanciano, is considered among the most important Eucharistic miracles. Numerous studies and canonical analyses were carried out on the relics. The Host changed into bleeding Flesh and Blood flowed out of the Blessed Sacrament.

Sacrament. On February 16, 1266 at Santarém (in Portugal), a young woman, seized with jealousy towards her husband, consulted a sorceress, who advised her to go to church and steal a consecrated Host in order to make a love potion from it. The woman stole the Host and hid it in a linen cloth, which at once was stained with Blood. Terrified, she ran to her home, where she opened up the handkerchief to see what happened. With great amazement, she saw that the Blood was gushing from the Host itself. Confused, the woman put the Host in a small drawer in her bedroom, but during the night, beams of light radiated from the drawer, making the room bright as in daylight. Her husband likewise noticed the strange phenomenon and began to question his wife, who then had to tell him the whole story. The following day, the couple informed the Pastor, who went to their house and picked up the Host, taking it back to the Church of St. Stephen in solemn procession, followed by many religious and followed by many religious and laymen. The Host continued to bleed for three consecutive days. Today, the Miraculous Host is preserved in an 18th century monstrance above the main altar. The Church of St. Stephen is known as the Shrine of the Holy Miracle. The Host has dripped Blood on several occasions over the centuries, and various images of Our Lord Jesus Christ have been seen to appear in it.

Third Order/Lay Carmelites

Third Order Secular (Lay Carmelites)--The Lay Carmelites will meet on Sunday, March 17th at 2pm, KC Hall. Anyone interested in learning about Carmelite Spirituality should plan to attend. The Carmelite Order began on Mount Carmel in the Holy Land by men who wished to be hermits, many former Crusaders who did not wish to return to Europe. Many people went to these hermits for intercessory prayer and healing. Their rule was written by St. Albert of Jerusalem, himself not a Carmelite. This simple rule is still followed today by Carmelite priests, monks and cloistered sisters.

Our Third Order will be having a Day of Recollection on Saturday, April 13th. We will began with Holy Mass at 8:30am celebrated by a Carmelite priest at St Mary's Basilica. All parishioners are invited to attend the Mass and even stay for Father's first talk on the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. More details will follow soon. Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.

Blessings, Ellen Perry, Director
