Capital Campaign

THERE ARE many signs that our Parish Office move-in date is within sight. It could be as early as end of June, 2024.

Televisions - INSTALLED

Internet - INSTALLED

Phone System- ARRIVED

Parking Lot - STRIPED and LANDSCAPED

So much progress has been accomplished since the Grand Opening a few weeks ago.

We are gaining new parishioner/donors each month. We need your prayers and your generosity to complete our goal. We have 16 more months in this four-year campaign to raise $5.5 million in pledges to fund PHASE 1 of our new Parish Life Center/Administration Offices.

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

This weekend we celebrate fathers everywhere. God is our Heavenly Father, “from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named” (Ephesians 3:15). Let us pray for all fathers that they may always strive to live out their vocation to love, serve and protect their families and communities in a spirit of joy, and so mirror the love of our Heavenly Father in their daily lives.

We are very delighted to welcome the seminarians who will be spending part of their summer in our parish as they take part in the Propaedeutic Program. Through this program, these young men will be assisted with the basic foundation they need to help prepare them for the program of priestly formation in in the seminary.

Also in our midst are two other seminarians – Mr. Theodore Birkofer and Mr. Ryan Berger – who are here for the Clinical Pastoral Education program (CPE) at UTMB. The aim of CPE is to equip seminarians in formation with the pastoral skills needed to minister the love and healing graces of Christ to those who are sick. While they are with us, Mr. Theodore and Ryan will be mostly engaged at UTMB and as a result, might not be as visible in the parish. I have therefore included their short autobiographies and pictures in this bulletin (see p. 5) to help us know them a little better. Please keep them and all who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood and the Religious Life in your prayers.

These seminarians are responding to God’s invitation to embrace spiritual fatherhood through the priesthood. Priests are fathers in the order of grace. Through their varied ministry and the administration of the sacraments, they beget (spiritual) life (in baptism) as well as provide guidance and paternal accompaniment especially during pivotal moments in the lives of those they serve. St. Paul attests to the validity of this form of fatherhood when writing to the Corinthian community, he acknowledged that he became [their] father in Christ Jesus through the gospel (1 Cor. 4:15). This is fatherhood in the order of grace!

Christ continues to call young men to embrace spiritual fatherhood through the priesthood. Let us echo Christ’s invitation by asking the young men we encounter – especially those in our families – this question: “Have you asked yourself what God might be calling you to in life?”

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

Este fin de semana celebramos a los padres en todas partes. Dios es nuestro Padre Celestial, “de quien toma nombre toda familia en el cielo y en la tierra” (Efesios 3:15). Oremos por todos los padres para que siempre se esfuercen por vivir su vocación de amar, servir y proteger a sus familias y comunidades con un espíritu de alegría, y así reflejar el amor de nuestro Padre Celestial en su vida diaria.

Estamos muy contentos de dar la bienvenida a los seminaristas que pasarán parte de su verano en nuestra parroquia mientras participan en el Programa Propedéutico. A través de este programa, estos jóvenes recibirán asistencia con la base básica que necesitan para ayudarlos a prepararse para el programa de formación sacerdotal en el seminario.

También entre nosotros hay otros dos seminaristas, el Sr. Theodore Birkofer y el Sr. Ryan Berger, que están aquí para el programa de Educación Pastoral Clínica (CPE) en UTMB. El objetivo de CPE es equipar a los seminaristas en formación con las habilidades pastorales necesarias para ministrar el amor y las gracias curativas de Cristo a los que están enfermos. Mientras estén con nosotros, el Sr. Theodore y Ryan estarán principalmente comprometidos en UTMB y, como resultado, es posible que no sean tan visibles en la parroquia. Por lo tanto, he incluido sus breves autobiografías y fotografías en este boletín (ver pág. 5) para ayudarnos a conocerlos un poco mejor. Por favor, manténgalos en sus oraciones a ellos y a todos los que están discerniendo una vocación al sacerdocio y la vida religiosa.

Estos seminaristas están respondiendo a la invitación de Dios de abrazar la paternidad espiritual a través del sacerdocio. Los sacerdotes son padres en el orden de la gracia. A través de su variado ministerio y la administración de los sacramentos, engendran vida (espiritual) (en el bautismo), además de brindar orientación y acompañamiento paternal, especialmente durante momentos cruciales en la vida de aquellos a quienes sirven. San Pablo da testimonio de la validez de esta forma de paternidad cuando, escribiendo a la comunidad corintia, reconoció que había llegado a ser padre en Cristo Jesús a través del evangelio (1 Cor. 4:15). ¡Esto es la paternidad en el orden de la gracia!

Cristo continúa llamando a los jóvenes a abrazar la paternidad espiritual a través del sacerdocio. Hagamos eco de la invitación de Cristo haciendo a los jóvenes que encontramos – especialmente a aquellos de nuestras familias – esta pregunta: “¿Te has preguntado a qué podría estar llamándote Dios en la vida?”

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Welcome to our visiting Seminararians!

My name is Theodore Birkofer, and I am proud to be a born-and-raised Roman Catholic and a Houston Astros fan. I have lived in Houston my whole life, attending St. Anne Catholic School and then St. Thomas High School. Next, I studied Philosophy and Religion at Hillsdale College which was, until seminary, the highlight of my life. In college, I sensed the Lord calling me to something great, as indeed He calls all to do great things. In prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, I realized that God might be calling him to the priesthood, and, to that end, I followed God to seminary for the adventure of a lifetime. I just finished my fourth year of seminary and will be going on Pastoral Year next year at St. Faustina Catholic Church in Fulshear, TX. I look forward to serving as a volunteer chaplain at UTMB this summer as I complete my Clinical Pastoral Education.

Howdy, my name is Ryan Berger, and I am a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. I was born and raised in Katy, Texas, and St. Bartholomew is my home parish. I studied computer science at Texas A&M, which is where I felt a longing in my heart to know Jesus more deeply and to grow in holiness. I experienced the desire to give my life more fully to God while praying before the Blessed Sacrament. My hobbies include watching Astros games and playing guitar. I am excited to spend the Summer in Galveston giving spiritual care to hospital patients at UTMB.
