Capital Campaign

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Holy Family Parish:

We are rapidly approaching our move to the new Parish Life Center, where we will have our Administrative Offices and meeting spaces for the different parish groups and faith formation classes. Our new mailing address is: 1525 25th Street, Galveston TX 77550. Soon we will be welcoming current and new parishioners into our new facility; How exciting!

With about 1 1/2 years left in our 4 year Capital Campaign to raise $5.5 million dollars to complete Phase 1 of our new Parish Life Center, we need about $900,000 in pledges to complete our goal. We have come this far through the generosity and sacrifice of many; thank you and may God bless you all!

We are very close to the finish line! Please consider supporting our campaign endeavors to create a common gathering space for both our parishioners and the community as well. To give, you can:

Scan the the QR code below; or,
Call the Parish Office (409-762-9646); or,
Contact our Campaign Chair, Ms. Grace Mansfield (409-771-0345); or,
Use the special Capital Campaign envelopes in the monthly offertory envelope.
Thank you for your great and generous support of Holy Family Parish!

Blessings

Grace Mansfield, Chair (409/771-0345)

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

How often we try to drag God into our worrying feats! Sometimes, as we deal with the challenges of life, we feel isolated and wonder if God is around. In such moments it is common for many of us to cry out, "God, where are you?" Or "God, why me?"

Of course, God is always with us, even when we do not feel his presence! The question is whether we have faith and trust in God or not. Today's Gospel presents us with powerful reminders of the lot of those who place their trust in God. Both miracles recounted in the Gospel bespeak of the goodness of God and of the faith of the recipients.

Our God sees us even when no one else does, making us feel isolated in our pain and struggles. The woman afflicted with hemorrhages experienced isolation as her condition would have made her ritually unclean to participate in temple worship. (For examples of the ritual prohibitions associated with the flow of blood in the Old Testament, see Leviticus 12:2-5 and 15:19). In addition, her condition was a cause of great shame, not to talk of the financial burden to her! Yet, she braved the odds and reached out to "touch" Jesus. And as for the little girl who, by the way, was also identified as being 12 years old, it was her father's persistent faith – which stood against the faithlessness of the crowd – that brought her the "touch" of Jesus, the touch that restores to new life.

The woman who had suffered for as long as this little girl had lived, experienced the help of God, as did the little girl! In a period where women and children often take the backseat, we are reminded that no one is insignificant in the sight of God. God sees us all and yes, he knows of our struggles. He calls us to have faith and to trust in him, no matter what betides. And remember, through the sacraments of the Church, we experience the healing touch and help of our God.

So, whether it is you or someone you care about that is going through a difficult time, remember this truth: "if you trust in the Lord always, he will make you a WARRIOR, not a WORRIER, as you face life's challenges". God bless you!

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

¡Cuán a menudo intentamos arrastrar a Dios a nuestras preocupantes hazañas! A veces, al afrontar los desafíos de la vida, nos sentimos aislados y nos preguntamos si Dios está cerca. En esos momentos es común que muchos de nosotros gritemos: "Dios, ¿dónde estás?" O "Dios, ¿por qué yo?"

¡Por supuesto, Dios siempre está con nosotros, incluso cuando no sentimos su presencia! La pregunta es si tenemos fe y confianza en Dios o no. El Evangelio de hoy nos presenta poderosos recordatorios de la suerte de quienes ponen su confianza en Dios. Ambos milagros relatados en el Evangelio hablan de la bondad de Dios y de la fe de quienes los reciben.

Nuestro Dios nos ve incluso cuando nadie más lo hace, haciéndonos sentir aislados en nuestro dolor y luchas. La mujer afectada por hemorragias experimentó aislamiento ya que su condición la habría hecho ritualmente impura para participar en la adoración del templo. (Para ejemplos de las prohibiciones rituales asociadas con el flujo de sangre en el Antiguo Testamento, ver Levítico 12:2-5 y 15:19). Además, su condición era motivo de gran vergüenza, ¡por no hablar de la carga financiera para ella! Sin embargo, desafió las probabilidades y se acercó para "tocar" a Jesús. Y en cuanto a la niña que, por cierto, también fue identificada como de 12 años, fue la fe persistente de su padre – que se opuso a la infidelidad de la multitud – lo que le trajo el "toque" de Jesús, el toque que restaura a una nueva vida.

La mujer que había sufrido mientras vivió esta niña, experimentó la ayuda de Dios, ¡al igual que la niña! En un período en el que las mujeres y los niños a menudo pasan a un segundo plano, se nos recuerda que nadie es insignificante ante los ojos de Dios. Dios nos ve a todos y sí, conoce nuestras luchas. Nos llama a tener fe y confiar en él, pase lo que pase. Y recuerde, a través de los sacramentos de la Iglesia, experimentamos el toque sanador y la ayuda de nuestro Dios.

Entonces, ya seas tú o alguien a quien quieres que esté pasando por un momento difícil, recuerda esta verdad: "si confías siempre en el Señor, él te hará GUERRERO, no PREOCUPADOR, al enfrentar los desafíos de la vida". ¡Dios lo bendiga!

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Seven Sisters Apostolate Call for Prayerful Women

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a devotion for women to help strengthen the Church by ensuring that one Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop at a parish.

The Galveston Holy Family Parish needs a few women who feel called to pray one Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week for our HFP priests. You may either commit to one year of weekly Holy Hour prayer for one of our priests or serve as an alternate / substitute for a sister. It is a beautiful devotion that supports our priests with a daily adoration hour anywhere in the world in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament. There are no time and location restrictions for your Holy Hour of prayer – you may pray anywhere at any time on your designated day for your specific priest.

If you feel called to this lovely devotion and want to commit one Holy Hour of weekly prayer for one of our HFP priests or serve as an occasion substitute if it fits your schedule, please contact the Galveston-Houston area Seven Sisters Apostolate at galvezhoustonsevensisters@gmail.com
