Capital Campaign

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Holy Family Parish,

Thank you for your continued prayerful support for our ongoing Capital Campaign, One Faith One Family! Looking at the progress we have made so far, I am reminded of this famous quote by the famous Nelson Mandela: "It always seems impossible until it's done!" Almost three years ago, we started this quest to raise $5.5 million to complete Phase 1 of our goal to refurbish the old Ursuline Convent at our School to become our new Administrative Offices/Parish Life Center. With less than 1 1/4 years, we have received a pledge total of $4.5 million and have received just a little over $3.8 million in cash. With such great contributions and participation so far, our goal is now very much attainable. Will you help us reach our goal and finish our 4-year campaign strong?

It will be great to finish this 4-year campaign for our new home. Please consider supporting our campaign endeavors to create a common gathering space for both our parishioners and the community as well. To give, you can:

Scan the QR code below, or

Call the Parish Office 409 762 9646, or

Contact the Campaign Chair, Grace Mansfield at 409 771 0345, or

Use the special Capital Campaign envelopes in the monthly offertory envelope

Thank you for your great and generous support! And may God bless you abundantly, amen!

Blessings

Grace Mansfield, Chair (409/771-0345)

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

There is so much hunger in our world! I do not mean physical hunger alone, but all that pertains to the desires of the human heart. We all yearn for goodness, love, good direction in life, security, good health, fulfillment ... the list goes on. And sometimes, our hunger takes us to places, people and situations that worsen rather than satiate them! Regrettably, this is not different even in religious settings.

In today's First Reading, we hear some strong words from God against those appointed as leaders and shepherds for his people. They failed to care for God's sheep. God, in response, promises that he himself will shepherd his people. This promise is fulfilled ultimately in Jesus Christ, who is the Good Shepherd.

As the Good Shepherd, Christ feeds our body, mind and soul; he gives us both material and spiritual nourishment. The Gospel is filled with episodes of Christ healing the sick, feeding the hungry, raising the dead, and of course, imparting words of wisdom that lead to eternal life. And in today's Gospel we are reminded that our God, the Good Shepherd, is always moved with pity regarding our human condition, and he lovingly provides for our needs.

Christ continues his ministry of shepherding through the Church and her faithful ministers. Priests are called pastors because they share in the ministry of Christ who is the Good Shepherd. St. Peter, writing to the presbyters – that is, the elders or as we now refer to them, the ordained ministers in the Church – exhorted them thus: "Tend the flock of God in your midst, [overseeing] not by constraint but willingly, as God would have it, not for shameful profit but eagerly. Do not lord it over those assigned to you, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory (1 Peter 5:2-4).

To serve as a pastor therefore is but a privilege for, we tend, not our own, but the flock of God! Pray for us, my dear brothers and sisters, that we be diligent, holy, faithful and loving co-shepherds with Christ as we carry out our pastoral responsibilities. Pray, also, for priests, deacons and consecrated men and women who suffer silently that they may experience strength and renewed vigor from God through the love and support of their brothers and sisters. Amen!

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

¡Hay tanta hambre en nuestro mundo! No me refiero sólo al hambre física, sino a todo lo que pertenece a los deseos del corazón humano. Todos anhelamos la bondad, el amor, una buena dirección en la vida, seguridad, buena salud, plenitud... la lista continúa. ¡Y a veces, nuestra hambre nos lleva a lugares, personas y situaciones que los empeoran en lugar de saciarlos! Lamentablemente, esto no es diferente ni siquiera en entornos religiosos.

En la Primera Lectura de hoy, escuchamos algunas palabras fuertes de Dios contra aquellos designados como líderes y pastores de su pueblo. No cuidaron de las ovejas de Dios. Dios, en respuesta, promete que él mismo pastoreará a su pueblo. Esta promesa se cumple finalmente en Jesucristo, quien es el Buen Pastor.

Como Buen Pastor, Cristo alimenta nuestro cuerpo, mente y alma; él nos da alimento tanto material como espiritual. El Evangelio está lleno de episodios de Cristo sanando a los enfermos, alimentando a los hambrientos, resucitando a los muertos y, por supuesto, impartiendo palabras de sabiduría que conducen a la vida eterna. Y en el Evangelio de hoy se nos recuerda que nuestro Dios, el Buen Pastor, siempre se compadece de nuestra condición humana y provee con amor de nuestras necesidades.

Cristo continúa su ministerio de pastoreo a través de la Iglesia y sus fieles ministros. Los sacerdotes son llamados pastores porque comparten el ministerio de Cristo que es el Buen Pastor. San Pedro, escribiendo a los presbíteros – es decir, a los ancianos o, como ahora nos referimos a ellos, a los ministros ordenados de la Iglesia – los exhortó así: "Apacientad el rebaño de Dios entre vosotros, [vigilando] no con fuerza, sino voluntariamente, como Dios quiere, no para obtener ganancias vergonzosas sino con entusiasmo. No os enseñoreéis de los que os han sido asignados, sino sed ejemplos para el rebaño. Y cuando el Príncipe de los Pastores se manifieste, recibiréis la corona inmarcesible de gloria (1 Pedro 5:2-4).

Por lo tanto, servir como pastor no es más que un privilegio porque cuidamos, no a nuestro propio rebaño, ¡sino al rebaño de Dios! Oren por nosotros, mis queridos hermanos y hermanas, para que seamos copastores diligentes, santos, fieles y amorosos con Cristo en el desempeño de nuestras responsabilidades pastorales. Oren también por los sacerdotes, diáconos y hombres y mujeres consagrados que sufren en silencio, para que puedan experimentar fuerza y vigor renovado de parte de Dios a través del amor y el apoyo de sus hermanos y hermanas. ¡Amén!

Somos: una Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unida en el gozo del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

SUNSCREEN DRIVE

WHO WE ARE:

Grace Clinic is a pro-bono clinic that helps serve the unhoused population on the Galveston Island. The clinic utilizes the Galveston Central Church as a space in which medical, nursing, and physical therapy students provide skilled medical services.

OUR MISSION:

As part of a fellowship project, we are working on collecting travel sized bottles of sunscreen to disperse to our unhoused community members given that the summer season is upon us, and our community members spend most of their day under the sun.

Third Order/Lay Carmelites

The Third Order Secular/Lay Carmelites will be celebrating several Carmelite Feasts this month. The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus, and each of us will be honoring this great gift of our redemption with our daily prayers. We will be attending the 12:10 Mass at St. Mary's Basilica in a body on the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, July 16th. We hope our parishioners will join us at Mass on this great Feast of Our Blessed Mother. We will also be celebrating the Feast of St. Elijah, the prophet of Carmel on July 20th. Then on July 27th, we will honor our chapter's namesake, St. Titus Brandsma, who died a martyr in the Nazi concentration camp of Dauchau. What great saints the Carmelite Order has given to the world along with three Doctor's of the Church; St. John of the Cross, St. Teresa of Avila and St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face. Anyone interested in learning more about Carmelite Spirituality can join us at Mass on these occasions where there are always many Carmelites in attendance. Our Lady of Mount Carmel, please intercede for us.

Blessings in Carmel!
Ellen Perry, Director

Please support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's Annual Black Bag Collection the weekend of July 20-21, 2024. Donations will help the Society provide food and financial assistance to families struggling to make ends meet. With the increasing cost of living, your support can make a difference.

La Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul los invita a participar en la Colecta Anual de la Bolsa Negra el 20-21 de Julio del 2024. Sus donaciones ayudaran la misión de proveer necesidades básicas, como comida, ayuda financiera, a familias con escasos recursos.

Support Fellowship for Catholic Men King David's Men

King David's Men is a confidential Catholic fellowship of adult men of any marital status, age, or vocation who meet weekly for an hour with the purpose of encouraging and supporting each other and learning about healthy sexuality and intimacy within the context of our Catholic faith. These meetings are for those who are currently struggling with these issues, as well as for those who have found healing but want to support their brothers.

New members can join at any time. Catholic male psychotherapists with professional licenses facilitate these groups. The adult men meet Saturdays 10-11am in our Stafford office. $10 per session. This group also meets at St. Anthony of Padua on Monday evenings (no cost).
