Capital Campaign

Hurrah!, we are beginning the 4th and final year of the Phase I of our ongoing Capital Campaign, One Faith One Family.

We are only about $850,000 away in pledges to reach our goal of $5.5 million. So many have given generously to our campaign thus far and we are immensely grateful for your support. Gratitude! That is our theme for this final year of the campaign. We are introducing the Angels Among Us Recognition Program to acknowledge and express our gratitude for all who have generously donated to the Capital Campaign, especially our major donors; please see below for the details of the program. In addition, all donations of $10,000 or more will be recognized on a donors' plaque that will be placed in the main lobby at the new Parish Life Center Please review the details of the program. So whether you were the first donor in 2021 or the last donor in 2025, we will recognize all of our donors with heartfelt gratitude, tributes and post campaign receptions. THANK YOU, AND MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Blessings to you and yours,
Grace Mansfield, Chair (409/771-0345)

Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

Nothing is too little to be offered to the Lord! What truly matters is our faith and devotion. In our readings this weekend, we are presented with the examples of two widows, one in the first reading and the second, in the Gospel. What binds them is their trust and faith in God who, as the Psalmist recalls today, “keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, [and] gives food to the hungry. The Lord [who] sets captives free”.

Both widows teach us a vital lesson in the life of Christian discipleship. Each of them were dealing with precarious and desperate situations yet, that did not prevent them from acting lovingly, trusting in God’s divine providence. The widow in the First Reading could easily have ignored the Prophet’s request and feel justified in doing so. After all, not only was she contending with the harsh realities of famine, she had very little for herself and for her son. That notwithstanding, she responded kindly to Elijah the prophet and was greatly blessed as a result as we see later in the chapter.

Unlike this widow, many of us act desperately during times of scarcity. Think back to the start of the Pandemic, for instance, how some of us became hoarders! The example of this widow is a constant reminder to all of us that charity, when exercised for love of God and with faith for the benefit of our brothers and sisters, is always praiseworthy.

Here is the good news: it is not really the amount given that matters but the size of the sacrifice involved. This much is made clear to us in today’s Gospel. While others were giving from the surpluses – which required little sacrifices on their part – the widow on the other hand, sacrificed a lot for she gave all she had! What she lacked in silver she possessed in abundance in generosity and faith. Christ, in lauding her sacrificial gift, invites us to emulate her example.

“God loves a cheerful giver”, St. Paul tells us (see 2 Corinthians 9:7). Let us not be stingy in the practice of our faith. Give generously of your self – your time, talent and treasure – to God and for the sake of the Gospel, and God will richly reward you. Amen!

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridísimos amados en Cristo:

Nada es demasiado poco para ofrecerlo al Señor. Lo que verdaderamente importa es nuestra fe y nuestra devoción. En las lecturas de este fin de semana, se nos presentan los ejemplos de dos viudas, una en la primera lectura y la segunda, en el Evangelio. Lo que las une es su confianza y fe en Dios que, como recuerda el salmista hoy, «mantiene la fidelidad eterna, hace justicia a los oprimidos y da pan a los hambrientos. El Señor que libera a los cautivos».

Ambas viudas nos enseñan una lección vital en la vida del discipulado cristiano. Ambas se enfrentaban a situaciones precarias y desesperadas, pero eso no les impidió actuar con amor, confiando en la divina providencia de Dios. La viuda de la primera lectura podría fácilmente haber ignorado la petición del profeta y sentirse justificada al hacerlo. Después de todo, no solo estaba luchando con las duras realidades de la hambruna, sino que tenía muy poco para ella y para su hijo. A pesar de eso, ella respondió con bondad al profeta Elías y fue grandemente bendecida como resultado, como vemos más adelante en el capítulo.

A diferencia de esta viuda, muchos de nosotros actuamos desesperadamente en tiempos de escasez. Pensemos, por ejemplo, en el comienzo de la pandemia, ¡cómo algunos de nosotros nos convertimos en acaparadores! El ejemplo de esta viuda es un recordatorio constante para todos nosotros de que la caridad, cuando se ejerce por amor a Dios y con fe en beneficio de nuestros hermanos y hermanas, siempre es digna de elogio.

Aquí está la buena noticia: no es realmente la cantidad donada lo que importa, sino el tamaño del sacrificio involucrado. Esto nos lo deja claro en el Evangelio de hoy. Mientras que otros daban de lo que les sobraba, lo que requería pequeños sacrificios de su parte, la viuda, por otro lado, sacrificó mucho porque dio todo lo que tenía. Lo que le faltaba en plata lo poseía en abundancia en generosidad y fe. Cristo, al elogiar su don sacrificial, nos invita a emular su ejemplo.

“Dios ama al que da con alegría”, nos dice san Pablo (cf. 2 Corintios 9,7). No seamos tacaños en la práctica de nuestra fe. Dad generosamente de vosotros mismos –vuestros tiempos, talentos y tesoros– a Dios y por el Evangelio, y Dios os recompensará con creces. ¡Amén!

Somos: una sola Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en la alegría del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros, ¡Amén!

Tu siervo-líder en Cristo,
