Message from the Pastor

Dearly Beloved in Christ:

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This feast, which is more popularly known as “Christ the King,” crowns the liturgical year and reorients our gaze toward the eternal reign of Christ. Its placement at the close of the Church’s liturgical calendar is no accident: it reminds us that our earthly pilgrimage, as members of God’s household, is ultimately directed toward full communion with all the saints in the kingdom of heaven.

The readings this weekend invite us to reflect on our readiness for that kingdom. Psalm 122, a psalm of ascent, evokes the joyful anticipation of pilgrims journeying toward Jerusalem, as they made their way to the temple. In the Second Reading, St. Paul exhorts us to give thanks to the Father, “who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light.”

The First Reading presents David, the shepherd-king chosen by God to lead Israel. The covenant God made with David—that his throne would endure forever (2 Samuel 7:12–16)—is fulfilled in Jesus Christ, the true and eternal King. Yet in today’s Gospel, we encounter a paradox: Christ reigns not from a gilded throne, but from the wood of the Cross. He is mocked, pierced, and crucified—yet it is precisely here, in this moment of seeming defeat, that His kingship is most fully revealed.

The good thief, crucified beside Jesus, recognizes His hidden majesty. With humility and faith, he entrusts himself to the mercy of the King—and receives the promise: “Today you will be with me in Paradise.” This encounter reminds us that the gates of the kingdom are opened not by our personal merit, but by mercy and grace. God’s mercy is lavished upon those who approach Him with a contrite heart and childlike trust.

Humility begins with the honest acknowledgment of our need for grace. Faith sustains us as we walk toward the kingdom, trusting not in our own strength, but in the love of the One who reigns and saves us from the Cross.

So, as we celebrate Christ our King, let us renew our commitment to live as citizens of His kingdom—here and now. Let us be people of mercy, forgiveness, and hope, as we serve one another with joy, build up our parish family in love, and bear witness to the reign of Christ in our community, starting in our homes.

We are: one Holy Family Parish, united in the joy of the Holy Spirit and in charity, as missionary disciples, amen!

Your servant-leader in Christ,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

Mensaje del Pastor

Queridos hermanos en Cristo:

Este fin de semana celebramos la Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. Esta fiesta, más conocida como “Cristo Rey,” corona el año litúrgico y reorienta nuestra mirada hacia el reinado eterno de Cristo. Su ubicación al final del calendario litúrgico de la Iglesia no es casual: nos recuerda que nuestra peregrinación terrenal, como miembros de la familia de Dios, está dirigida en última instancia hacia la comunión plena con todos los santos en el Reino de los cielos.

Las lecturas de este fin de semana nos invitan a reflexionar sobre nuestra preparación para ese Reino. El Salmo 122, un salmo de ascenso, evoca la alegre anticipación de los peregrinos que se dirigían a Jerusalén, mientras avanzaban hacia el templo. En la Segunda Lectura, San Pablo nos exhorta a dar gracias al Padre, “que los ha hecho aptos para participar en la herencia de los santos en la luz.”

La Primera Lectura presenta a David, el pastor-rey elegido por Dios para guiar a Israel. La alianza que Dios hizo con David—que su trono perduraría para siempre (2 Samuel 7:12–16)—se cumple en Jesucristo, el verdadero y eterno Rey. Sin embargo, en el Evangelio de hoy encontramos una paradoja: Cristo no reina desde un trono dorado, sino desde la madera de la Cruz. Es burlado, herido y crucificado—y es precisamente allí, en ese momento de aparente derrota, donde su realeza se revela en plenitud.

El buen ladrón, crucificado junto a Jesús, reconoce su majestad oculta. Con humildad y fe, se entrega a la misericordia del Rey—y recibe la promesa: “Hoy estarás conmigo en el Paraíso.” Este encuentro nos recuerda que las puertas del Reino se abren no por nuestros méritos personales, sino por la misericordia y la gracia. La misericordia de Dios se derrama sobre quienes se acercan a Él con corazón contrito y confianza de niño.

La humildad comienza con el reconocimiento honesto de nuestra necesidad de gracia. La fe nos sostiene mientras caminamos hacia el Reino, confiando no en nuestras propias fuerzas, sino en el amor de Aquel que reina y nos salva desde la Cruz.

Así pues, al celebrar a Cristo nuestro Rey, renovemos nuestro compromiso de vivir como ciudadanos de su Reino—aquí y ahora. Seamos personas de misericordia, perdón y esperanza, sirviendo con alegría, edificando nuestra familia parroquial en el amor, y dando testimonio del reinado de Cristo en nuestra comunidad, comenzando en nuestros hogares.

Somos: una sola Parroquia de la Sagrada Familia, unidos en la alegría del Espíritu Santo y en la caridad, como discípulos misioneros. ¡Amén!

Su líder-siervo en Cristo,

Very Rev. Jude Ekenedilichukwu Ezuma

TEXAS EDUCATION FUND ACCOUNTS (TEFA)

A message from Principal Telesford:

As Principal of Holy Family Catholic School, I am thrilled about the Texas Education Freedom Accounts and what it means for our families.

This opportunity empowers parents with the financial flexibility to choose educational institutions—like ours—that are rooted in faith and guided by a God-centered mission.

The Texas Education Freedom Accounts helps remove financial barriers, allowing more families to access a Catholic education that nurtures both academic excellence and spiritual growth. At Holy Family, we integrate faith into every aspect of learning, helping students develop strong moral character, a sense of purpose, and a deep connection to their community. With this program, parents can confidently select a school that aligns with their values and supports their child's whole development.

By choosing Holy Family Catholic School through the Texas Education Freedom Accounts, families invest in a future built on faith, knowledge, and community. It's a powerful way to ensure children grow in wisdom and grace, surrounded by educators who share their commitment to God's foundation.

Holy Family Parish will be participating in an upcoming Tour of Catholic Churches, offering parishioners, tourists, and the community an opportunity to explore the beauty, history, and faith of our sacred churches.

We are seeking parishioners to serve as docents (tour guides) during the event. Docents will welcome visitors, share the history of the church, and highlight the architecture and traditions that make Holy Family Parish a unique place.

We need your help! The script has already been written! A training session will be held before the tours. The first tour will be Saturday, December 27, 2025.
